Design Mastery Academy – Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is Design Mastery Academy?
Design Mastery Academy is Landry Designs' exclusive training and certification program designed to equip aspiring interior designers with the knowledge, tools, and professional skills needed to thrive in the industry.

2. Who is this program for?
This program is ideal for individuals who are passionate about interior design and want to pursue a professional design career, whether they're starting fresh, switching careers, or looking to refine and certify their skills in a structured, real-world environment.

3. Do I need prior design experience to apply?
No prior interior design experience is required. We look for individuals with a strong aesthetic eye, great communication skills, and a desire to learn and grow within a team environment.

4. What will I learn in the program?
You'll gain hands-on training in the Landry Designs signature process, including space planning, product sourcing, client consultation, presentation techniques, project coordination, and Big Reveal Day execution. You'll also develop essential business, sales, and communication skills.

5. How long is the program?
The core certification program typically runs for three months depending on the training schedule. It's designed to be immersive, fast-paced, and practical.

6. Is this a paid training program?
No. Once certified, designers may be eligible to move into client-facing roles with compensation tied to project sales.

7. What makes Design Mastery Academy different from other programs?
Unlike classroom-based design schools, our program is rooted in real-world project experience with actual clients, an award-winning team, and access to over 100 vendors and trade resources—all within our 18,000 sq. ft. working design studio and warehouse in Arlington, TX.

8. Will I earn a certification?
Yes. Upon successful completion of the program, you'll receive the Design Mastery Academy Interior Designer Certification.

9. What happens after I complete the program?
Graduates who meet all performance criteria may be invited to join our design team and start taking on design projects, with continued support and mentorship.

10. How do I apply?
Visit [https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1rWq-EDi-MHDTC37kZSA21EF09HH-JHxBLKMLNBXX7Go/preview] to complete the application. Shortlisted candidates will be invited for an interview and portfolio or style evaluation (don't worry—we'll guide you through it).

11. What qualities do you look for in a great candidate?
We're looking for people who are coachable, creative, detail-oriented, organized, and excited to be part of a high-performing team. Sales or customer service experience is a plus!

12. Is there room for advancement after certification?
Absolutely. Many of our top designers have grown into senior roles, mentors, and project leads. We're invested in helping the top Design Mastery Academy graduates grow with us.

13. Where is the training held?
Training takes place at our headquarters in Arlington, TX, where you'll have access to our studio, warehouse, vendor showroom, and dedicated mentorship team.

14. What's the work schedule like during training?
The training program requires a commitment of approximately 3–5 hours per week during regular business hours. This includes a combination of both in-person and virtual training sessions. Attendance at all scheduled sessions is essential for successful completion of the program.

15. Can I tour the studio before applying?
If you're selected for an interview, you'll also get a behind-the-scenes look at our space and how we operate.

16. Is there a tuition fee for the program?
Yes. While the program has a $20,000 value, we're currently offering special pricing of just $599 for selected applicants. Are you interested in being considered for a performance-based scholarship refund? Students who show exceptional initiative, creativity, and growth during the program may be awarded a full refund of the $599 tuition fee.